Turkey and Russia have recently signed several important energy deals , including one for expanding the capacity of the Blue Stream gas pipeline under the Black Sea , and Turkey has suggested that it would allow Russia to build the proposed South Stream , a controversial pipeline designed to bypass Ukraine , on its own territory if the European Union blocks the project .

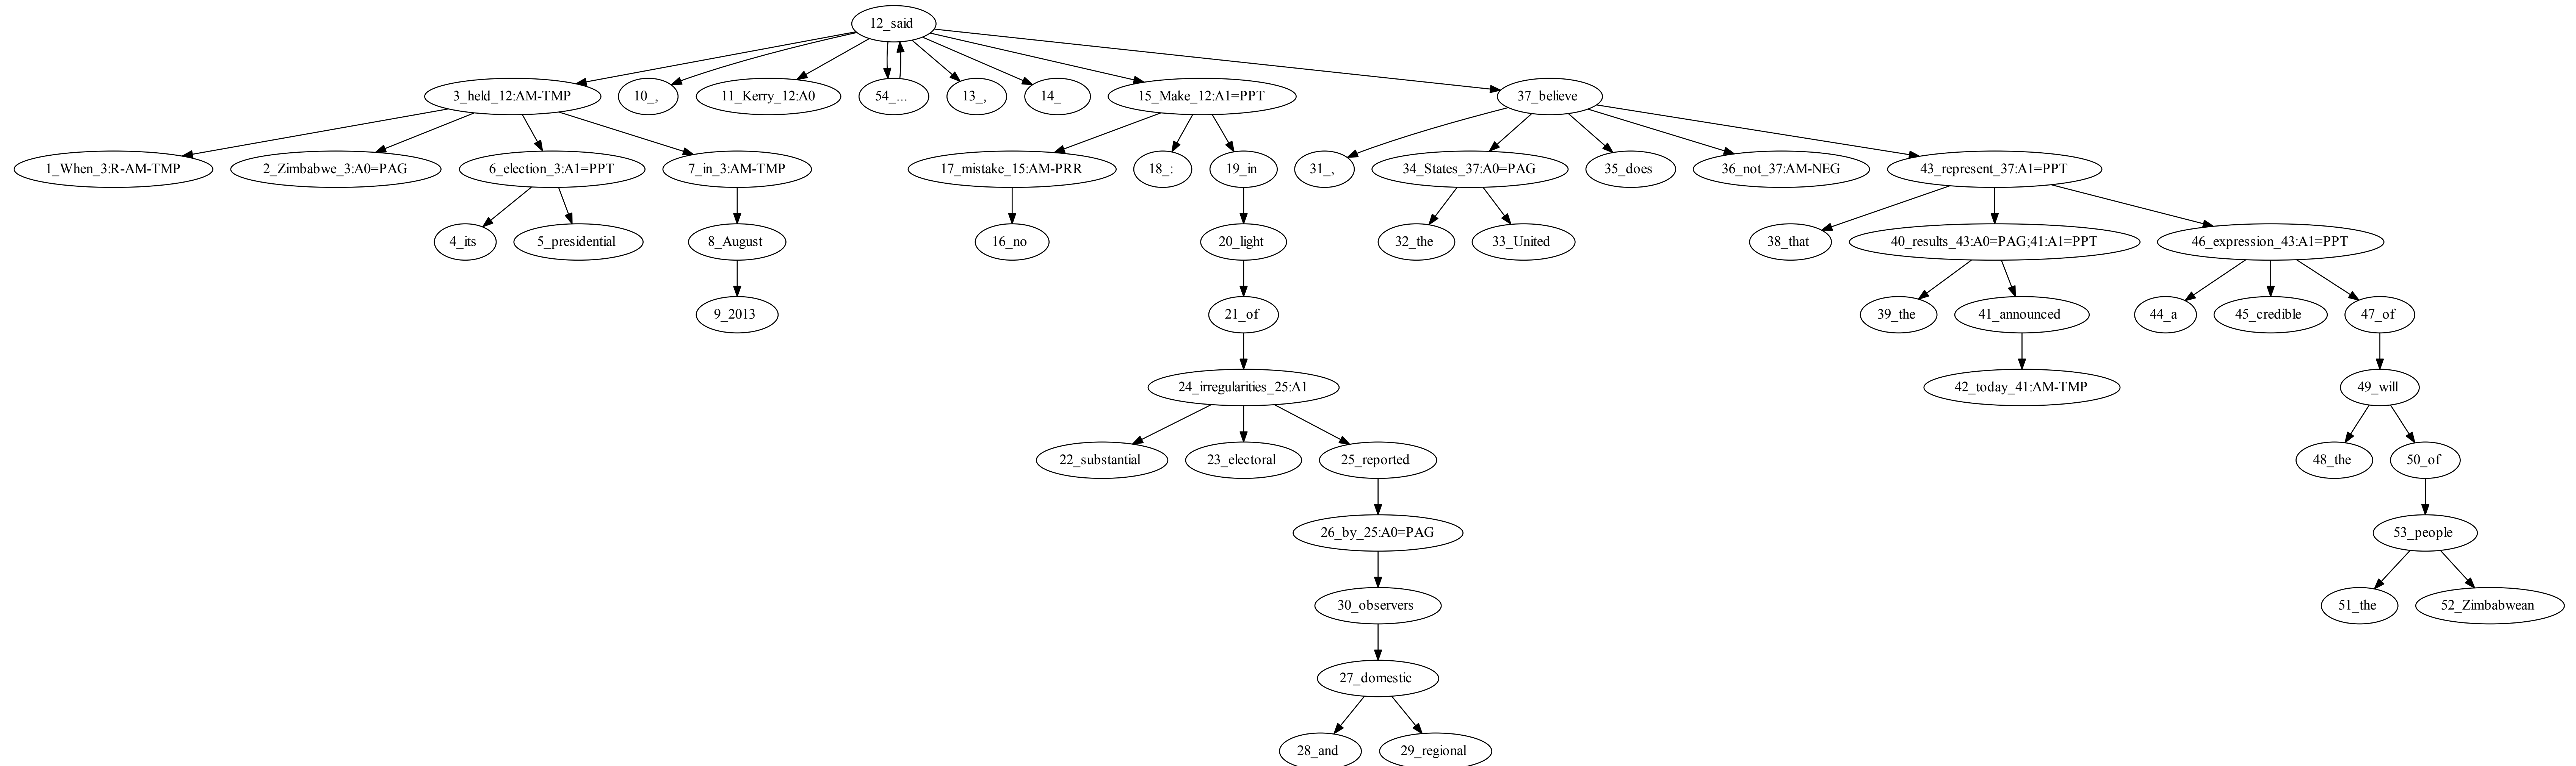

File17888_Sent13allow.01_allow.01

That scenario would require Iran to resolve its nuclear issue with the UN , which would then lift its sanctions on the country and allow renewed international investments in Iran 's underdeveloped gas fields , which is where Russia could easily interfere .

U.S. Attorney General Eric Holder will announce cyberspying charges against China Monday .

File13479_Sent1charge.01_charge.01

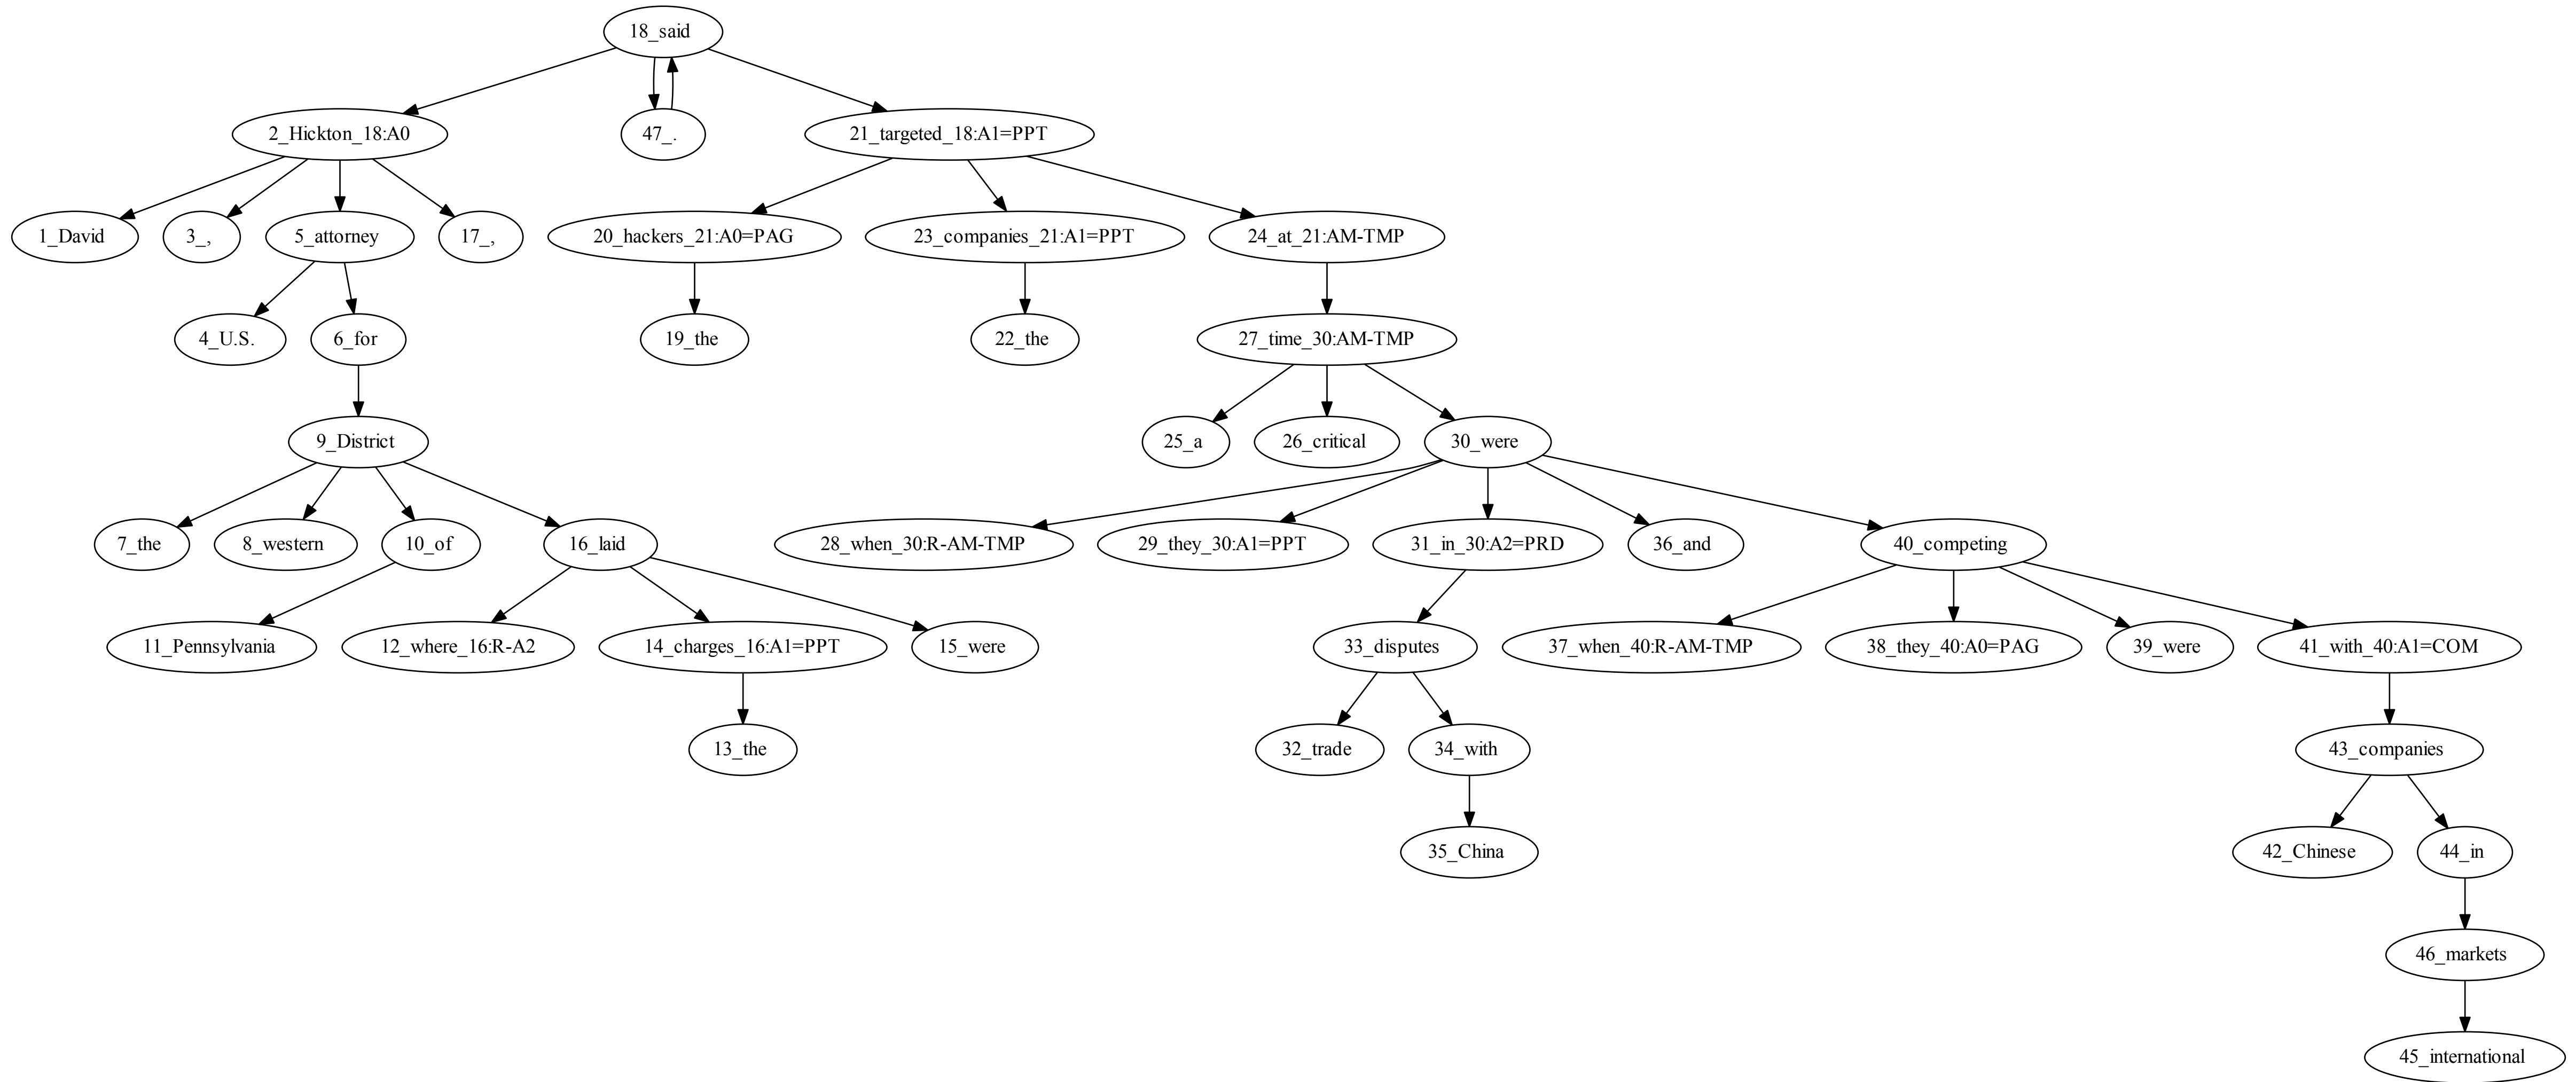

WASHINGTON â The United States has charged five Chinese army hackers with systematic cyberspying that stole trade secrets from six U.S. nuclear , steel and clean - energy companies , directly resulting in âsubstantialâ loss of jobs , competitive edge and markets .

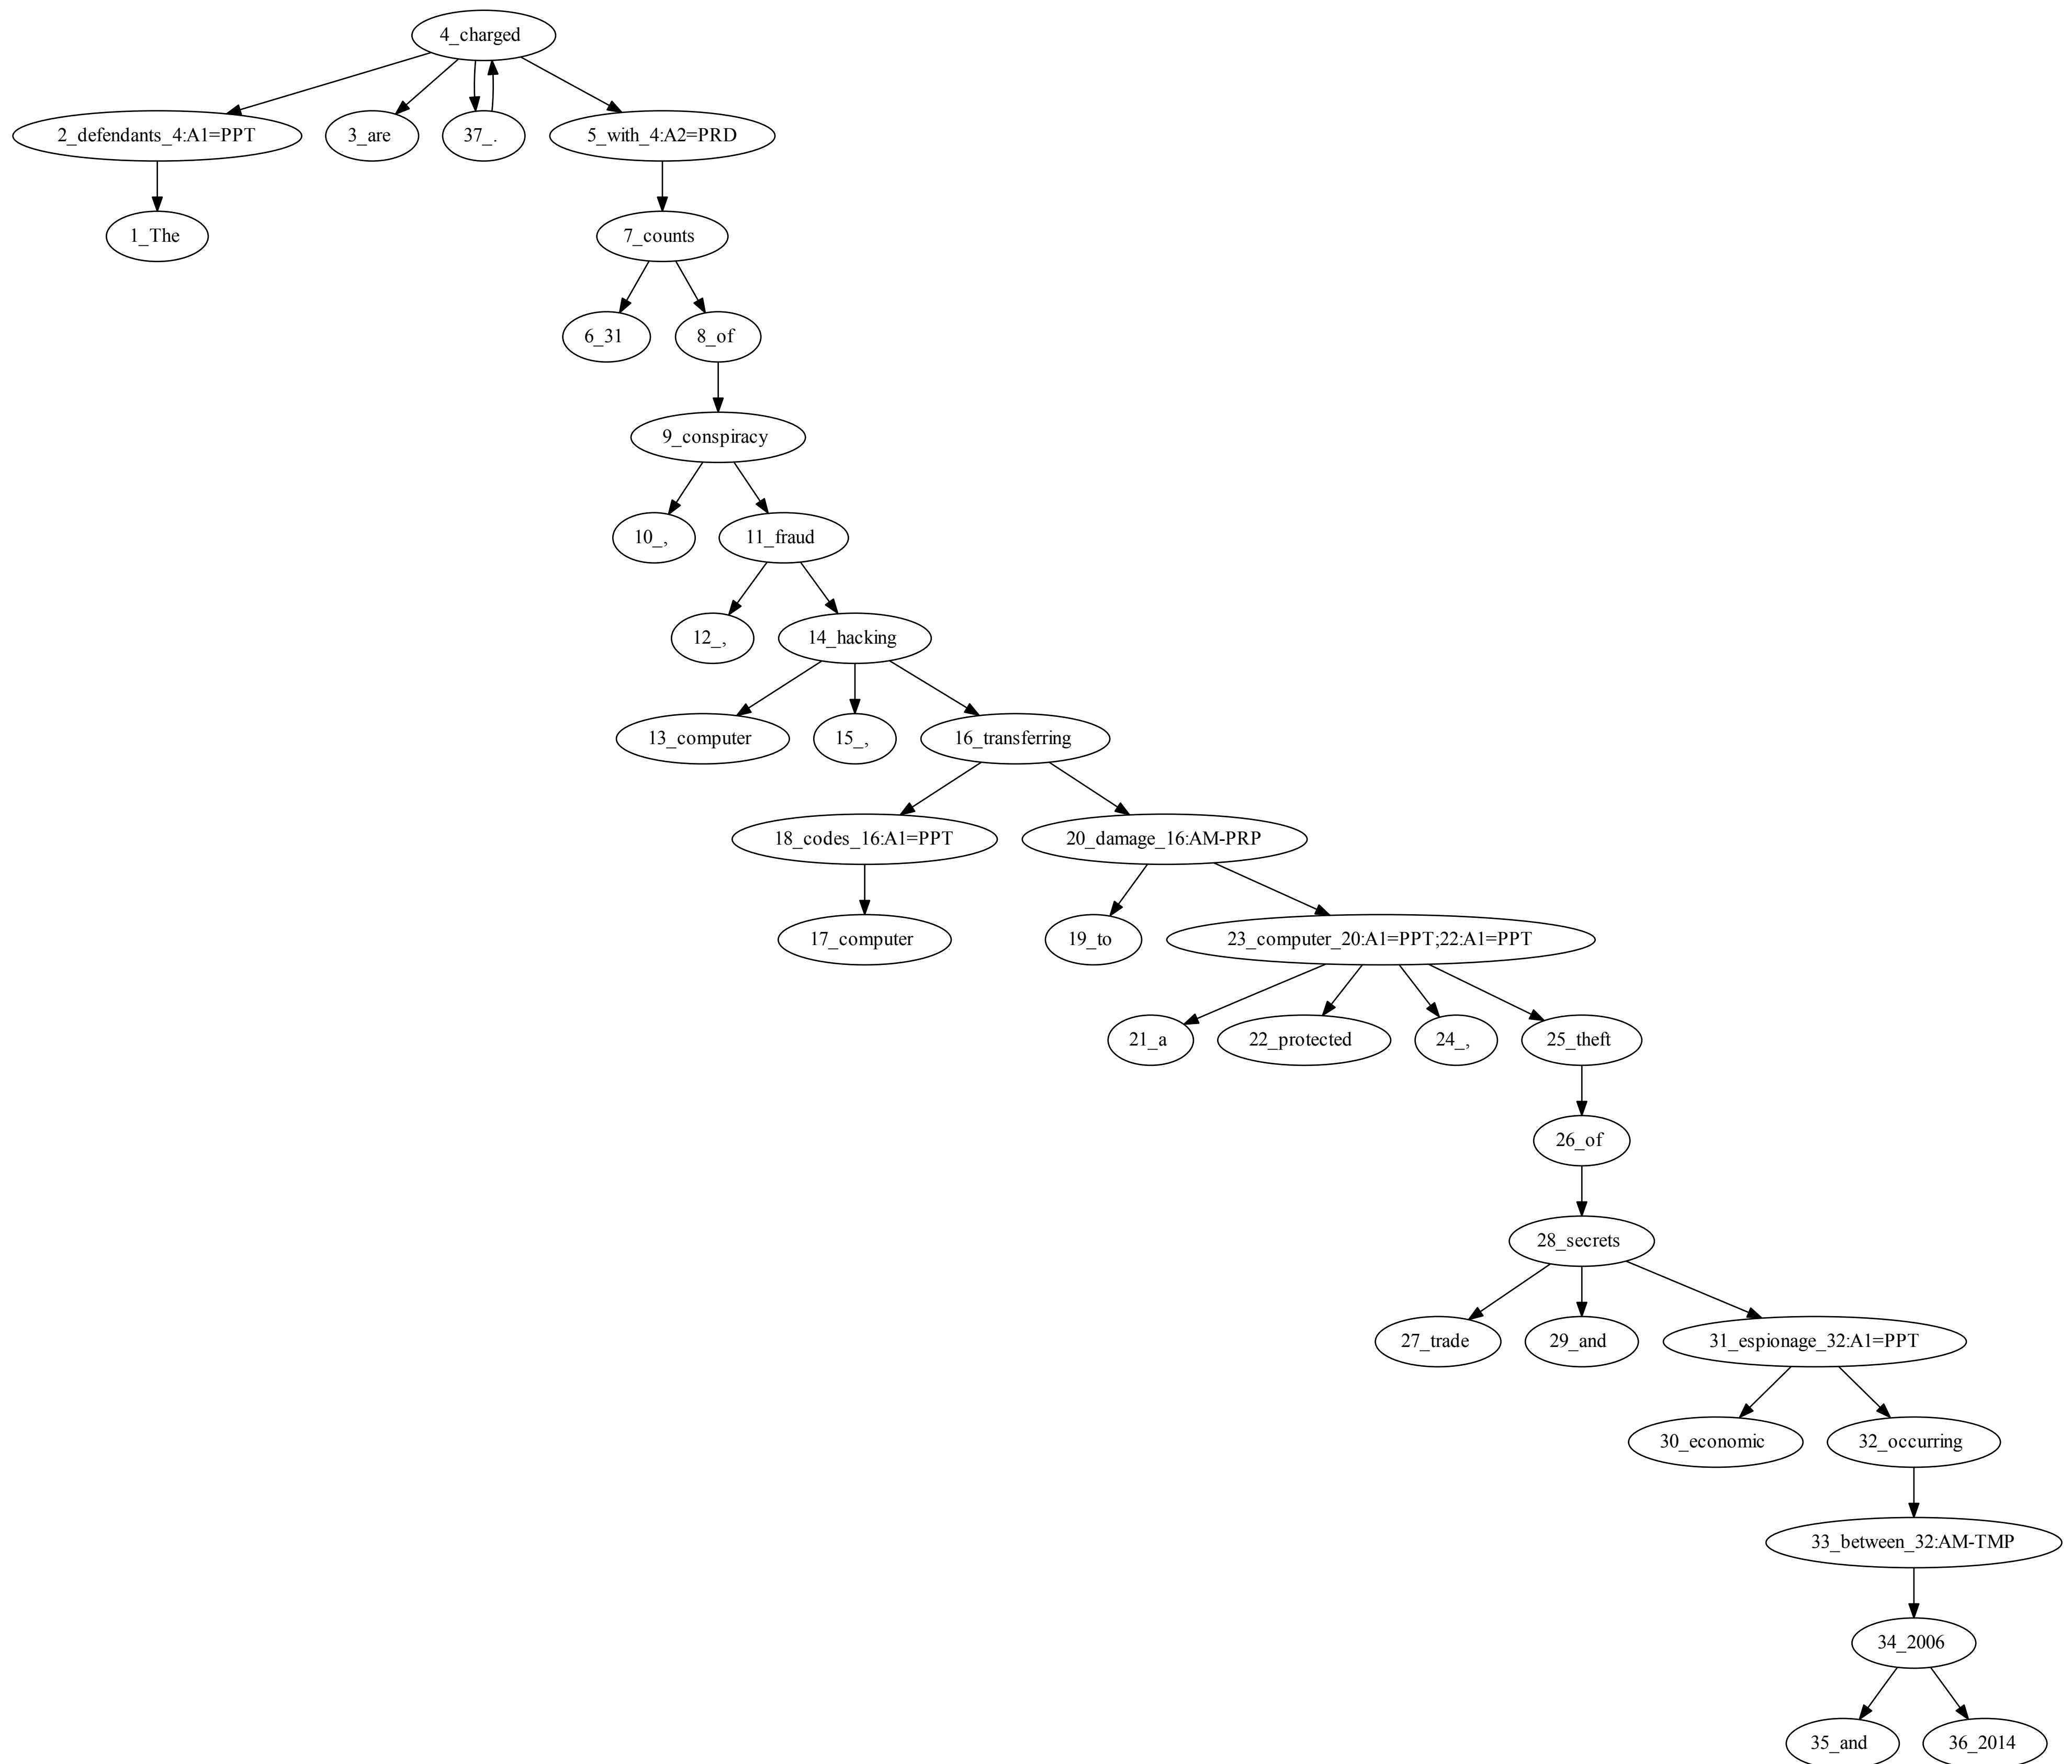

File13479_Sent5charge.01_charge.01

The five charged hackers â Wang Dong , Sun Kailiang , Wen Xinyu , Huang Zhenyu , and Gu Chunhui â are officers in Unit 61398 of the Third Department of the Chinese Peopleâs Liberation Army (PLA) , the indictment reads .

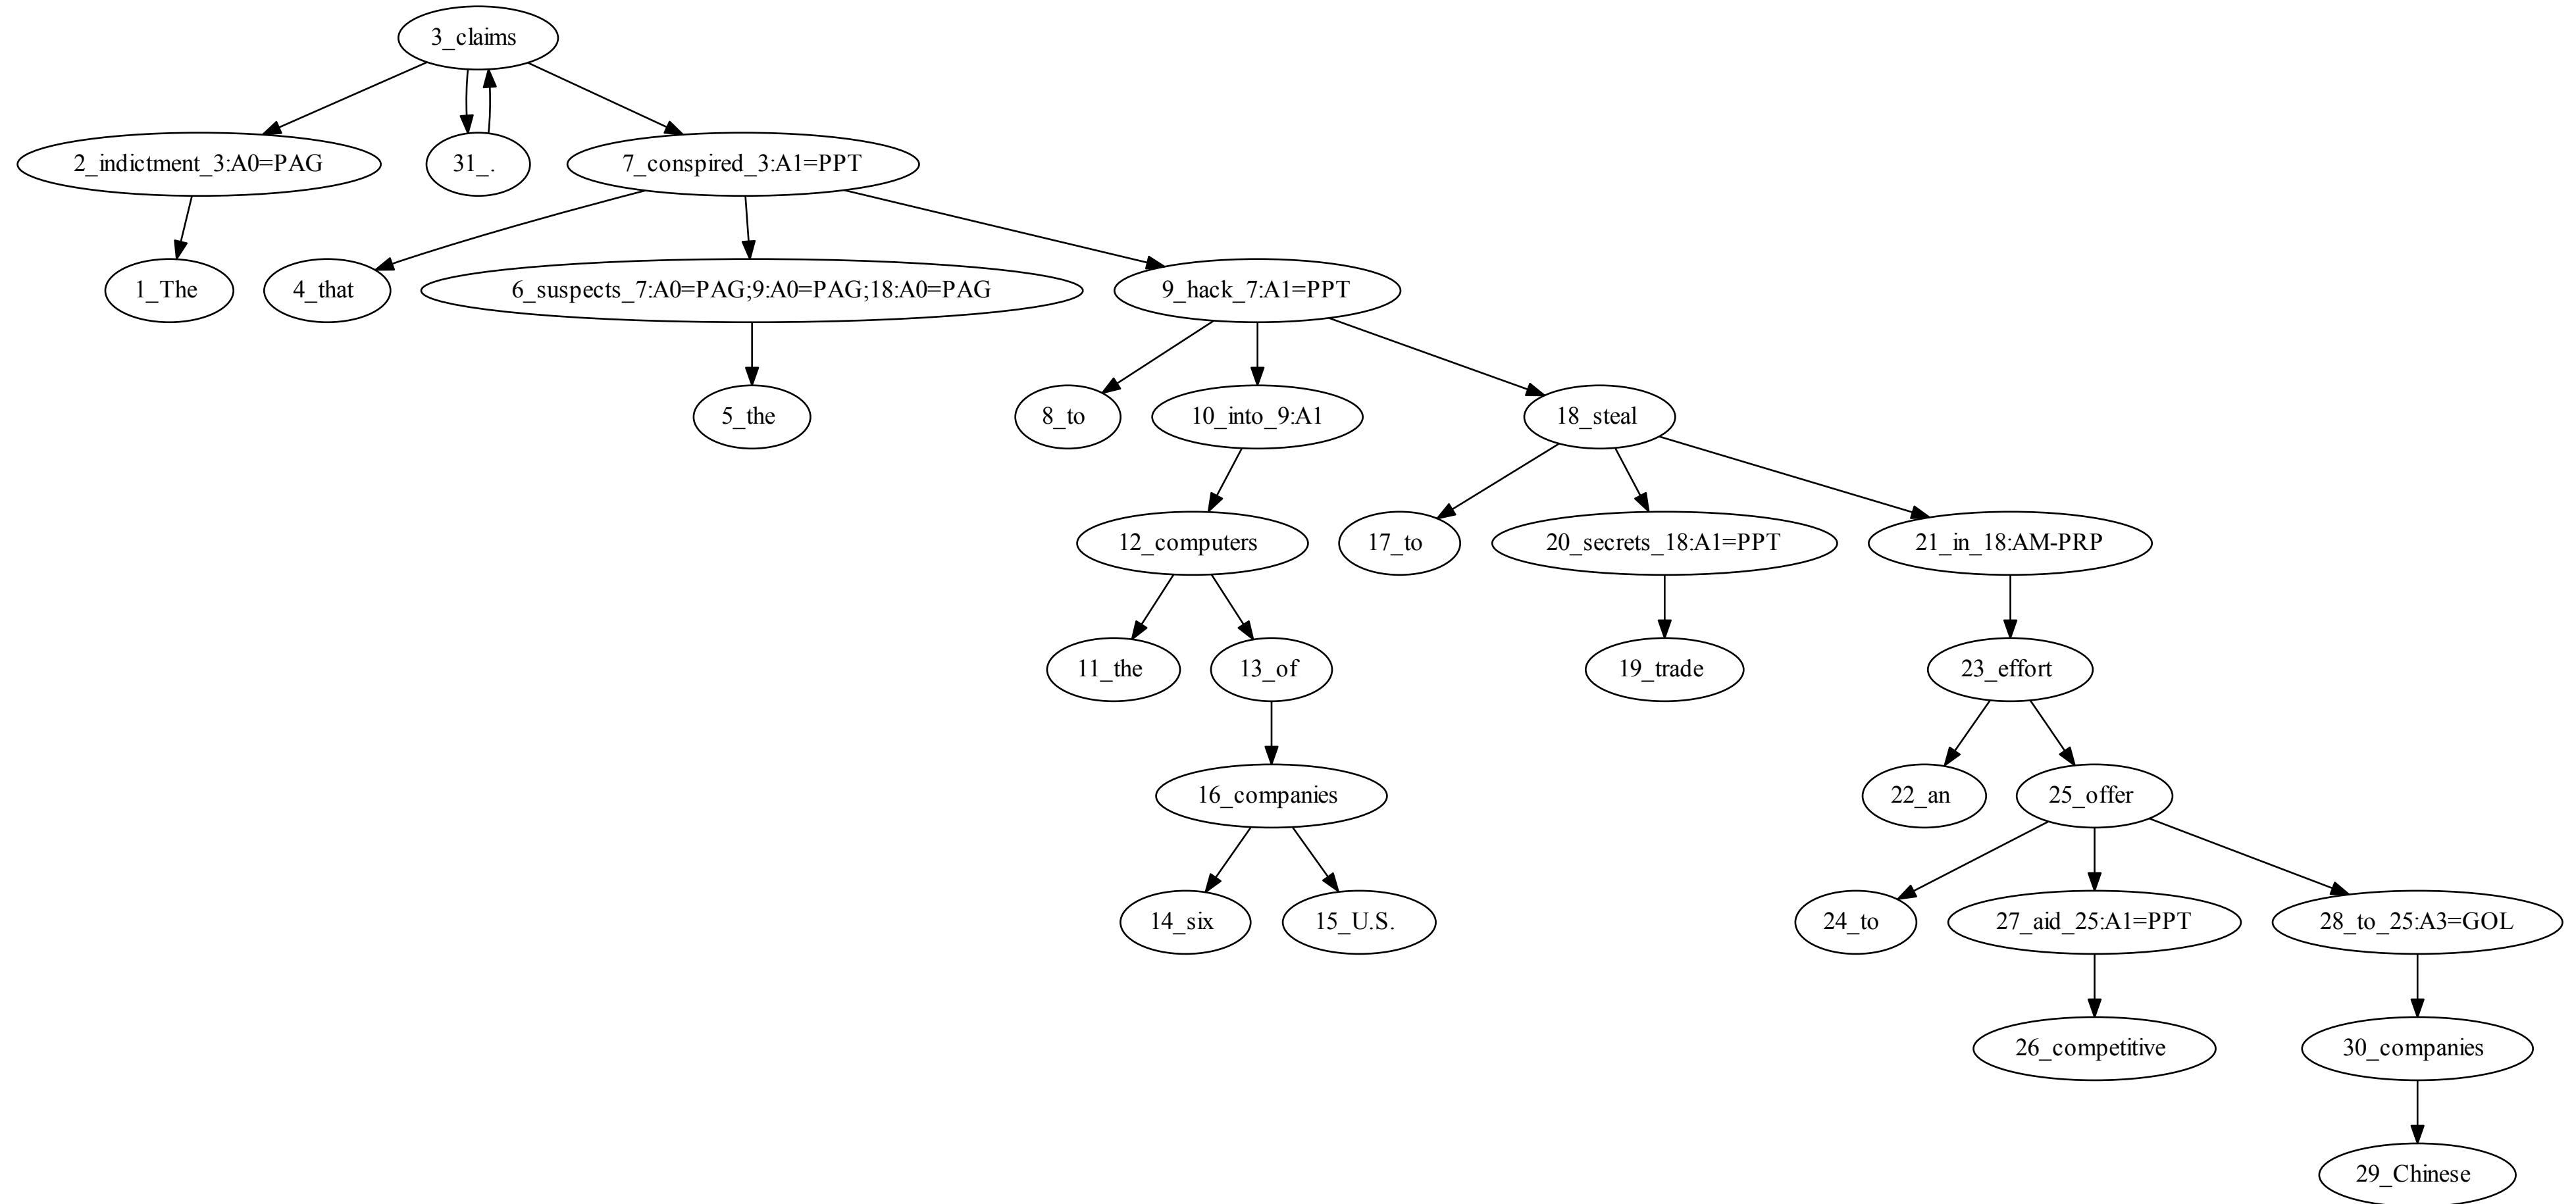

File13479_Sent11charge.01_charge.01

David Hickton , U.S. attorney for the western District of Pennsylvania where the charges were laid , said the hackers targeted the companies at a critical time when they were in trade disputes with China and when they were competing with Chinese companies in international markets .

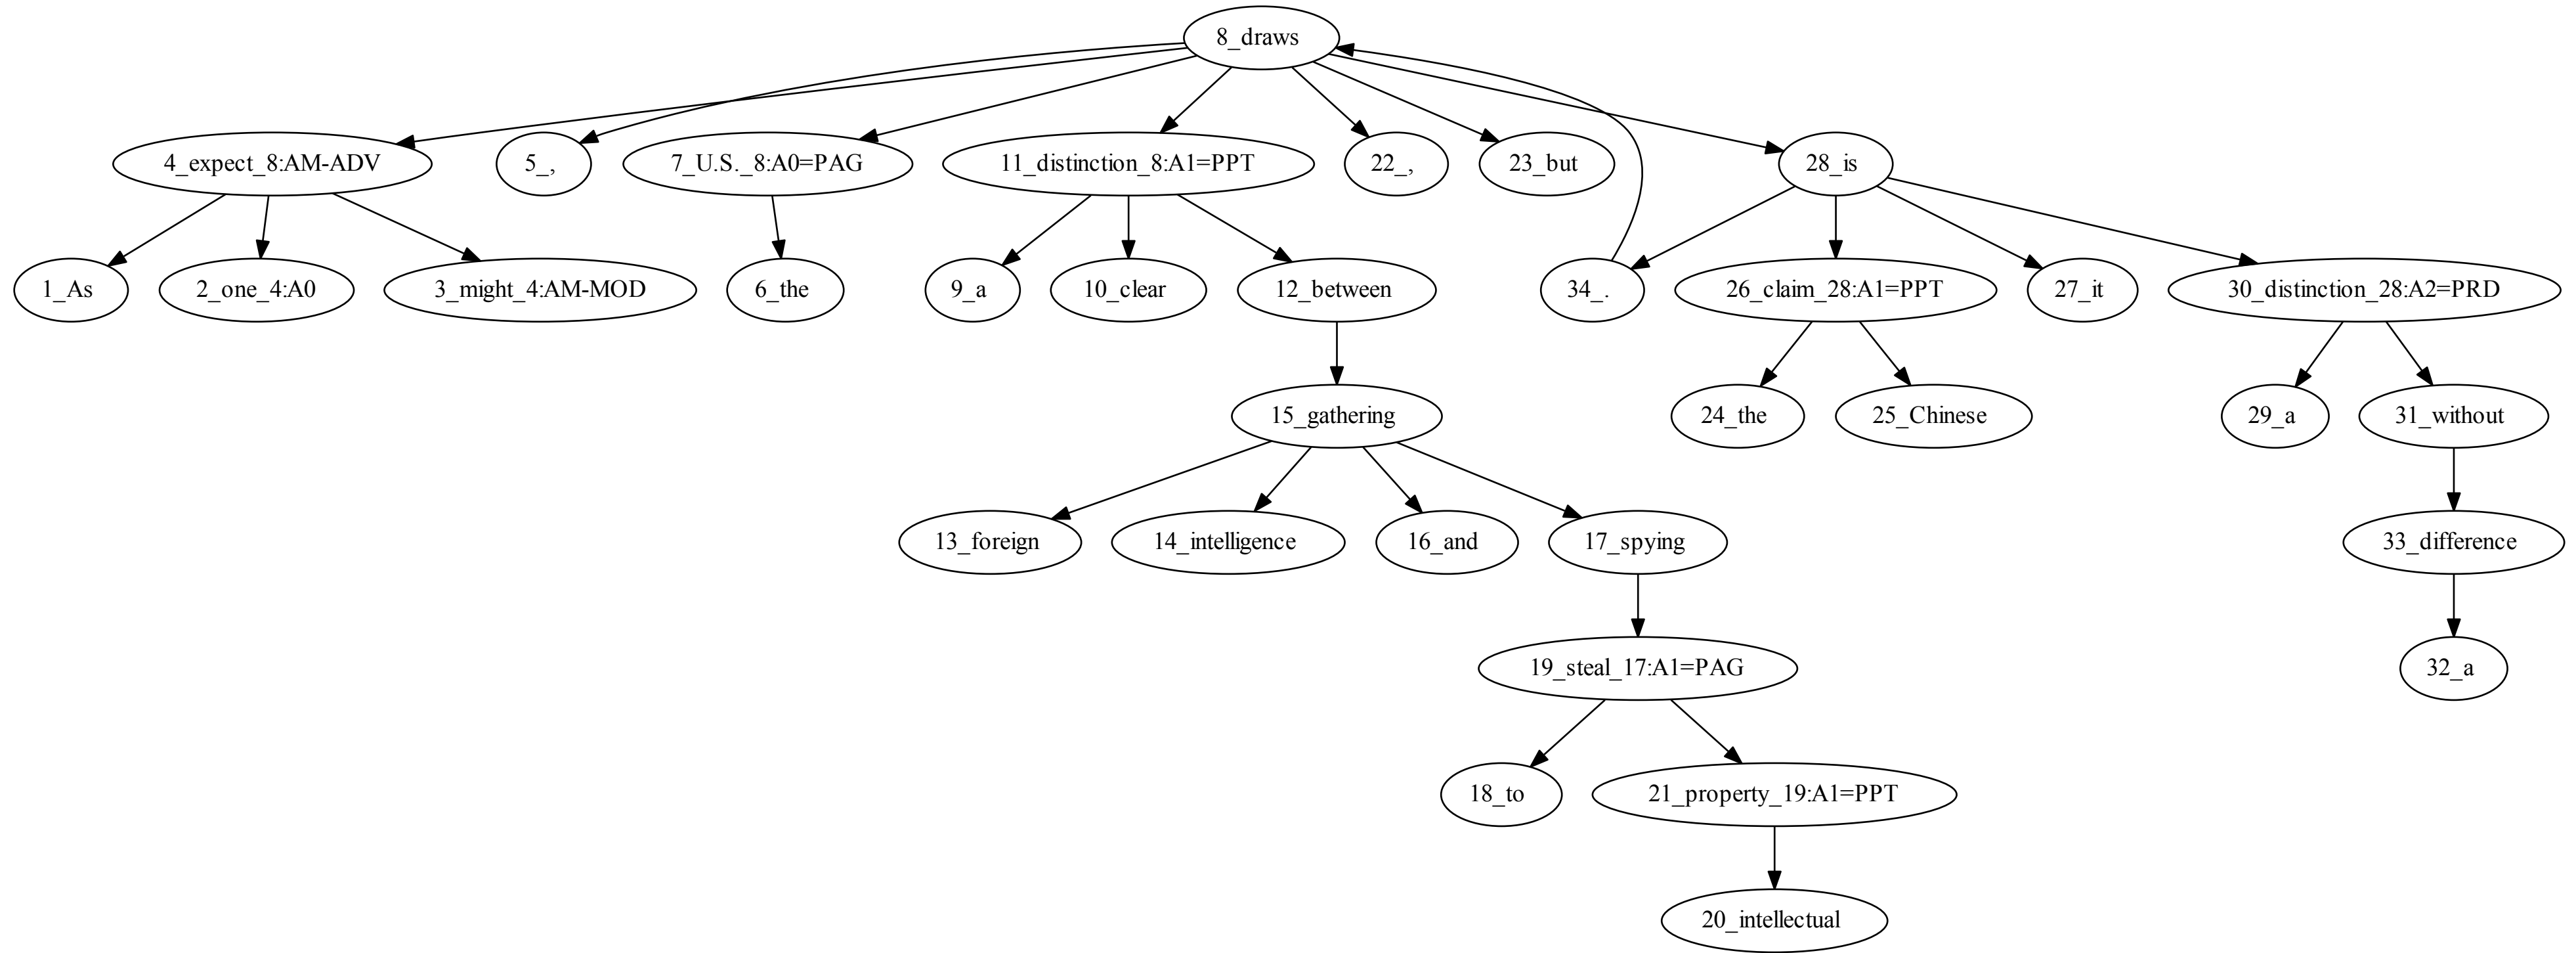

File13479_Sent13charge.01_charge.01

The defendants are charged with 31 counts of conspiracy , fraud , computer hacking , transferring computer codes to damage a protected computer , theft of trade secrets and economic espionage occurring between 2006 and 2014 .

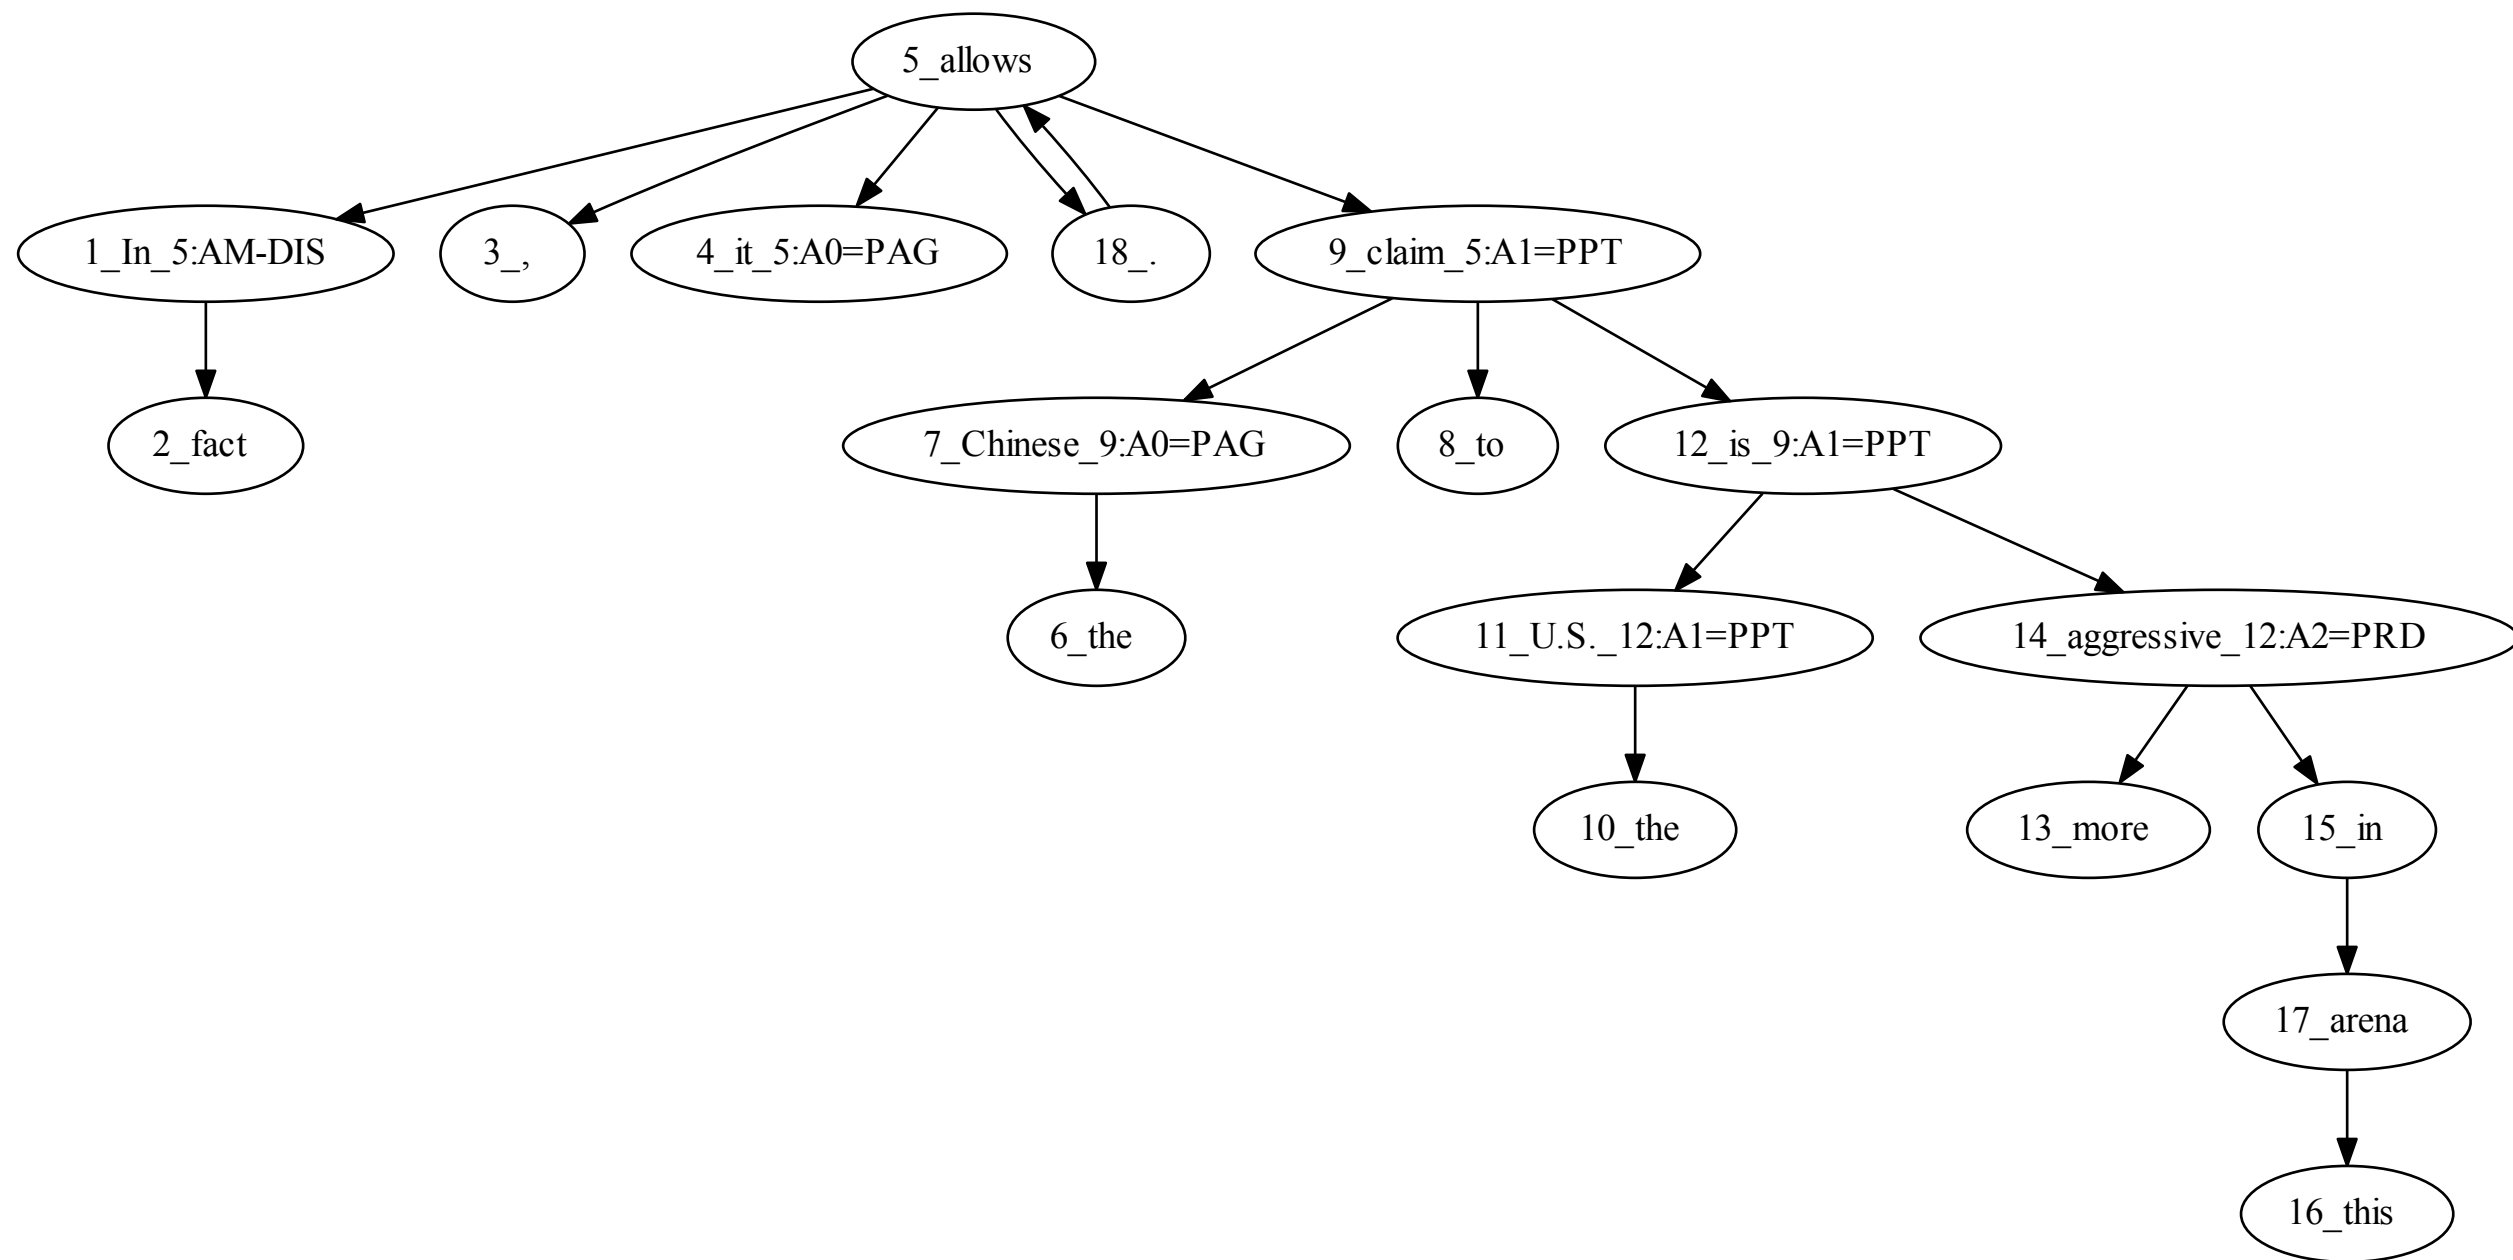

File202_Sent2claim.01_claim.01

The indictment claims that the suspects conspired to hack into the computers of six U.S. companies to steal trade secrets in an effort to offer competitive aid to Chinese companies .

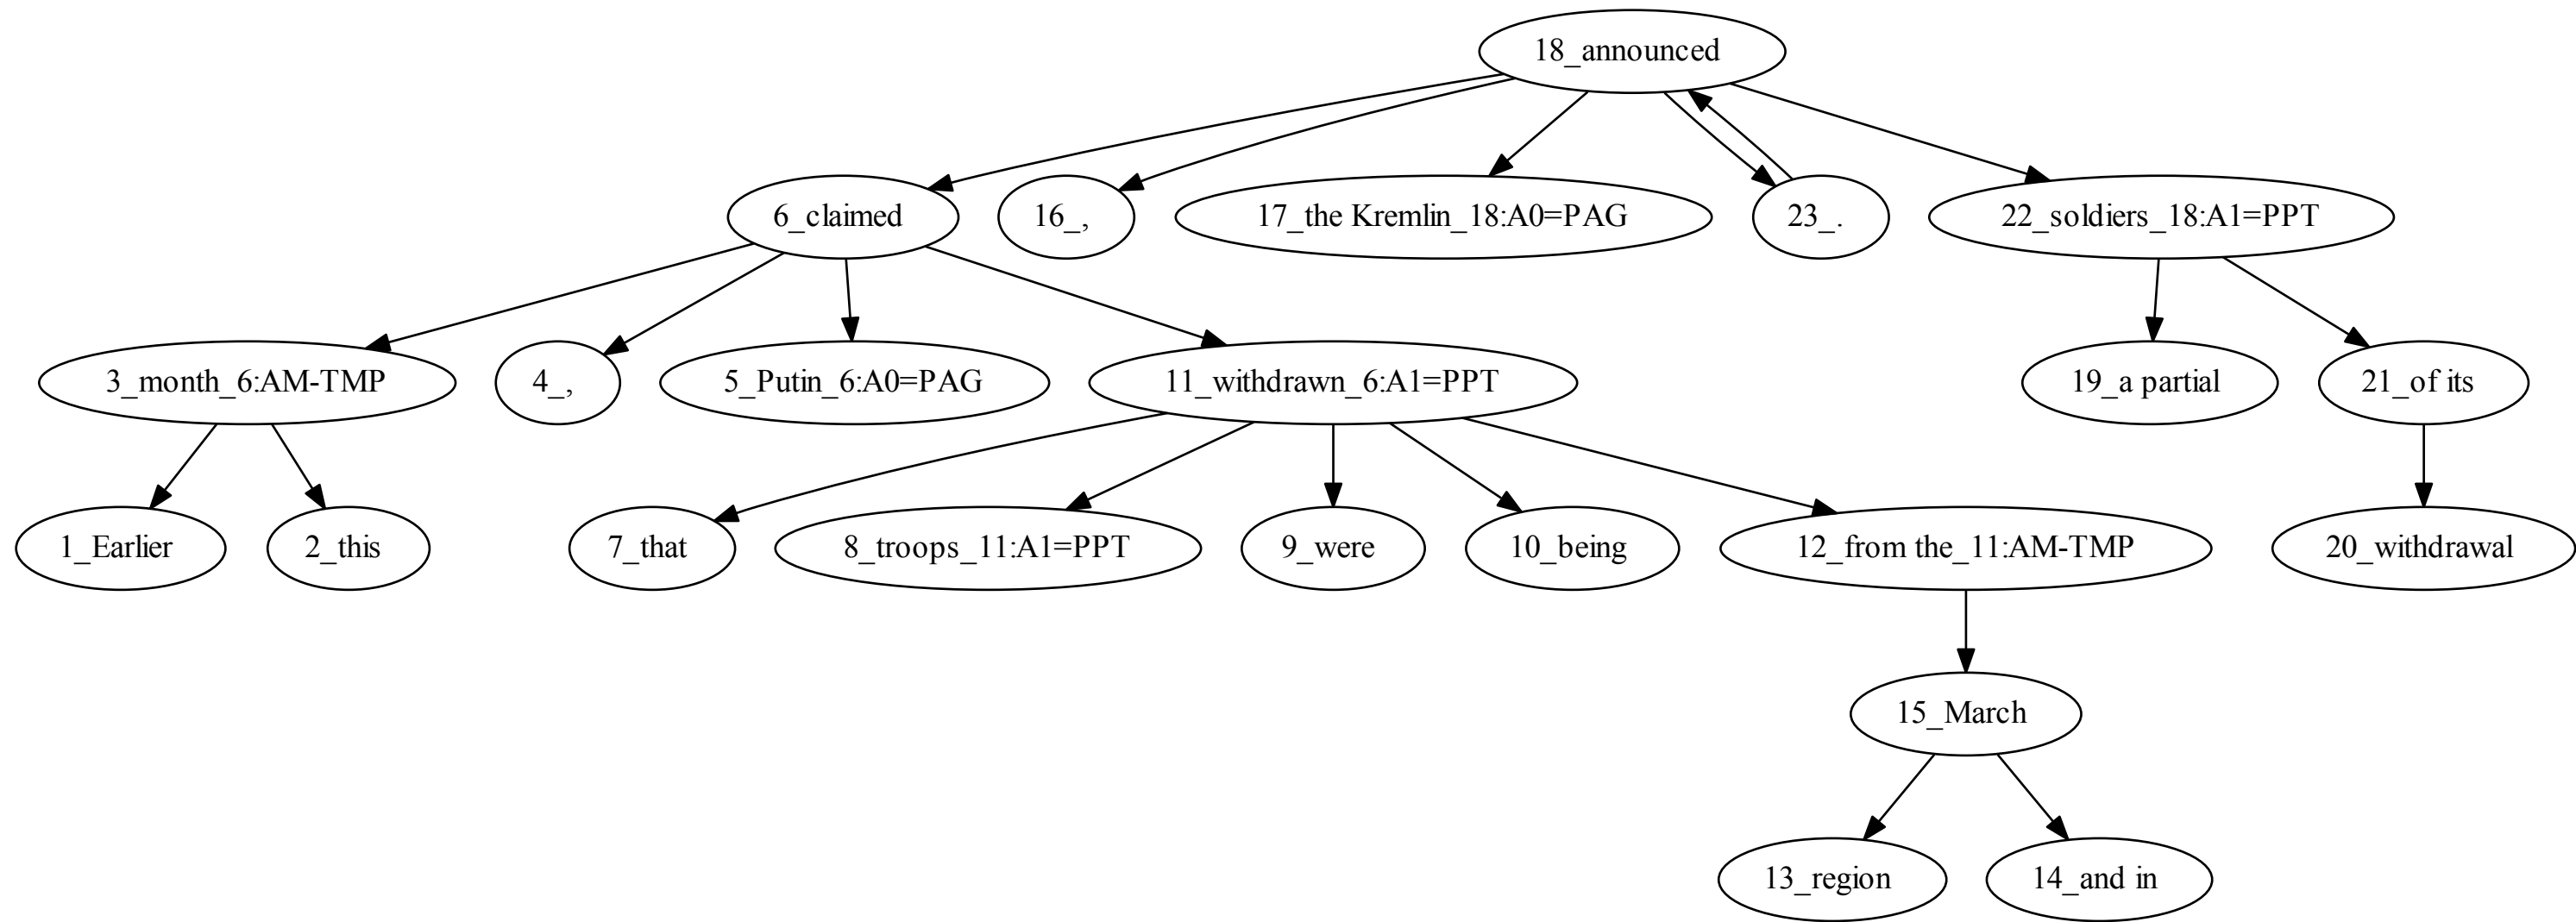

File202_Sent10claim.01_claim.01

As one might expect , the U.S. draws a clear distinction between foreign intelligence gathering and spying to steal intellectual property , but the Chinese claim it is a distinction without a difference .

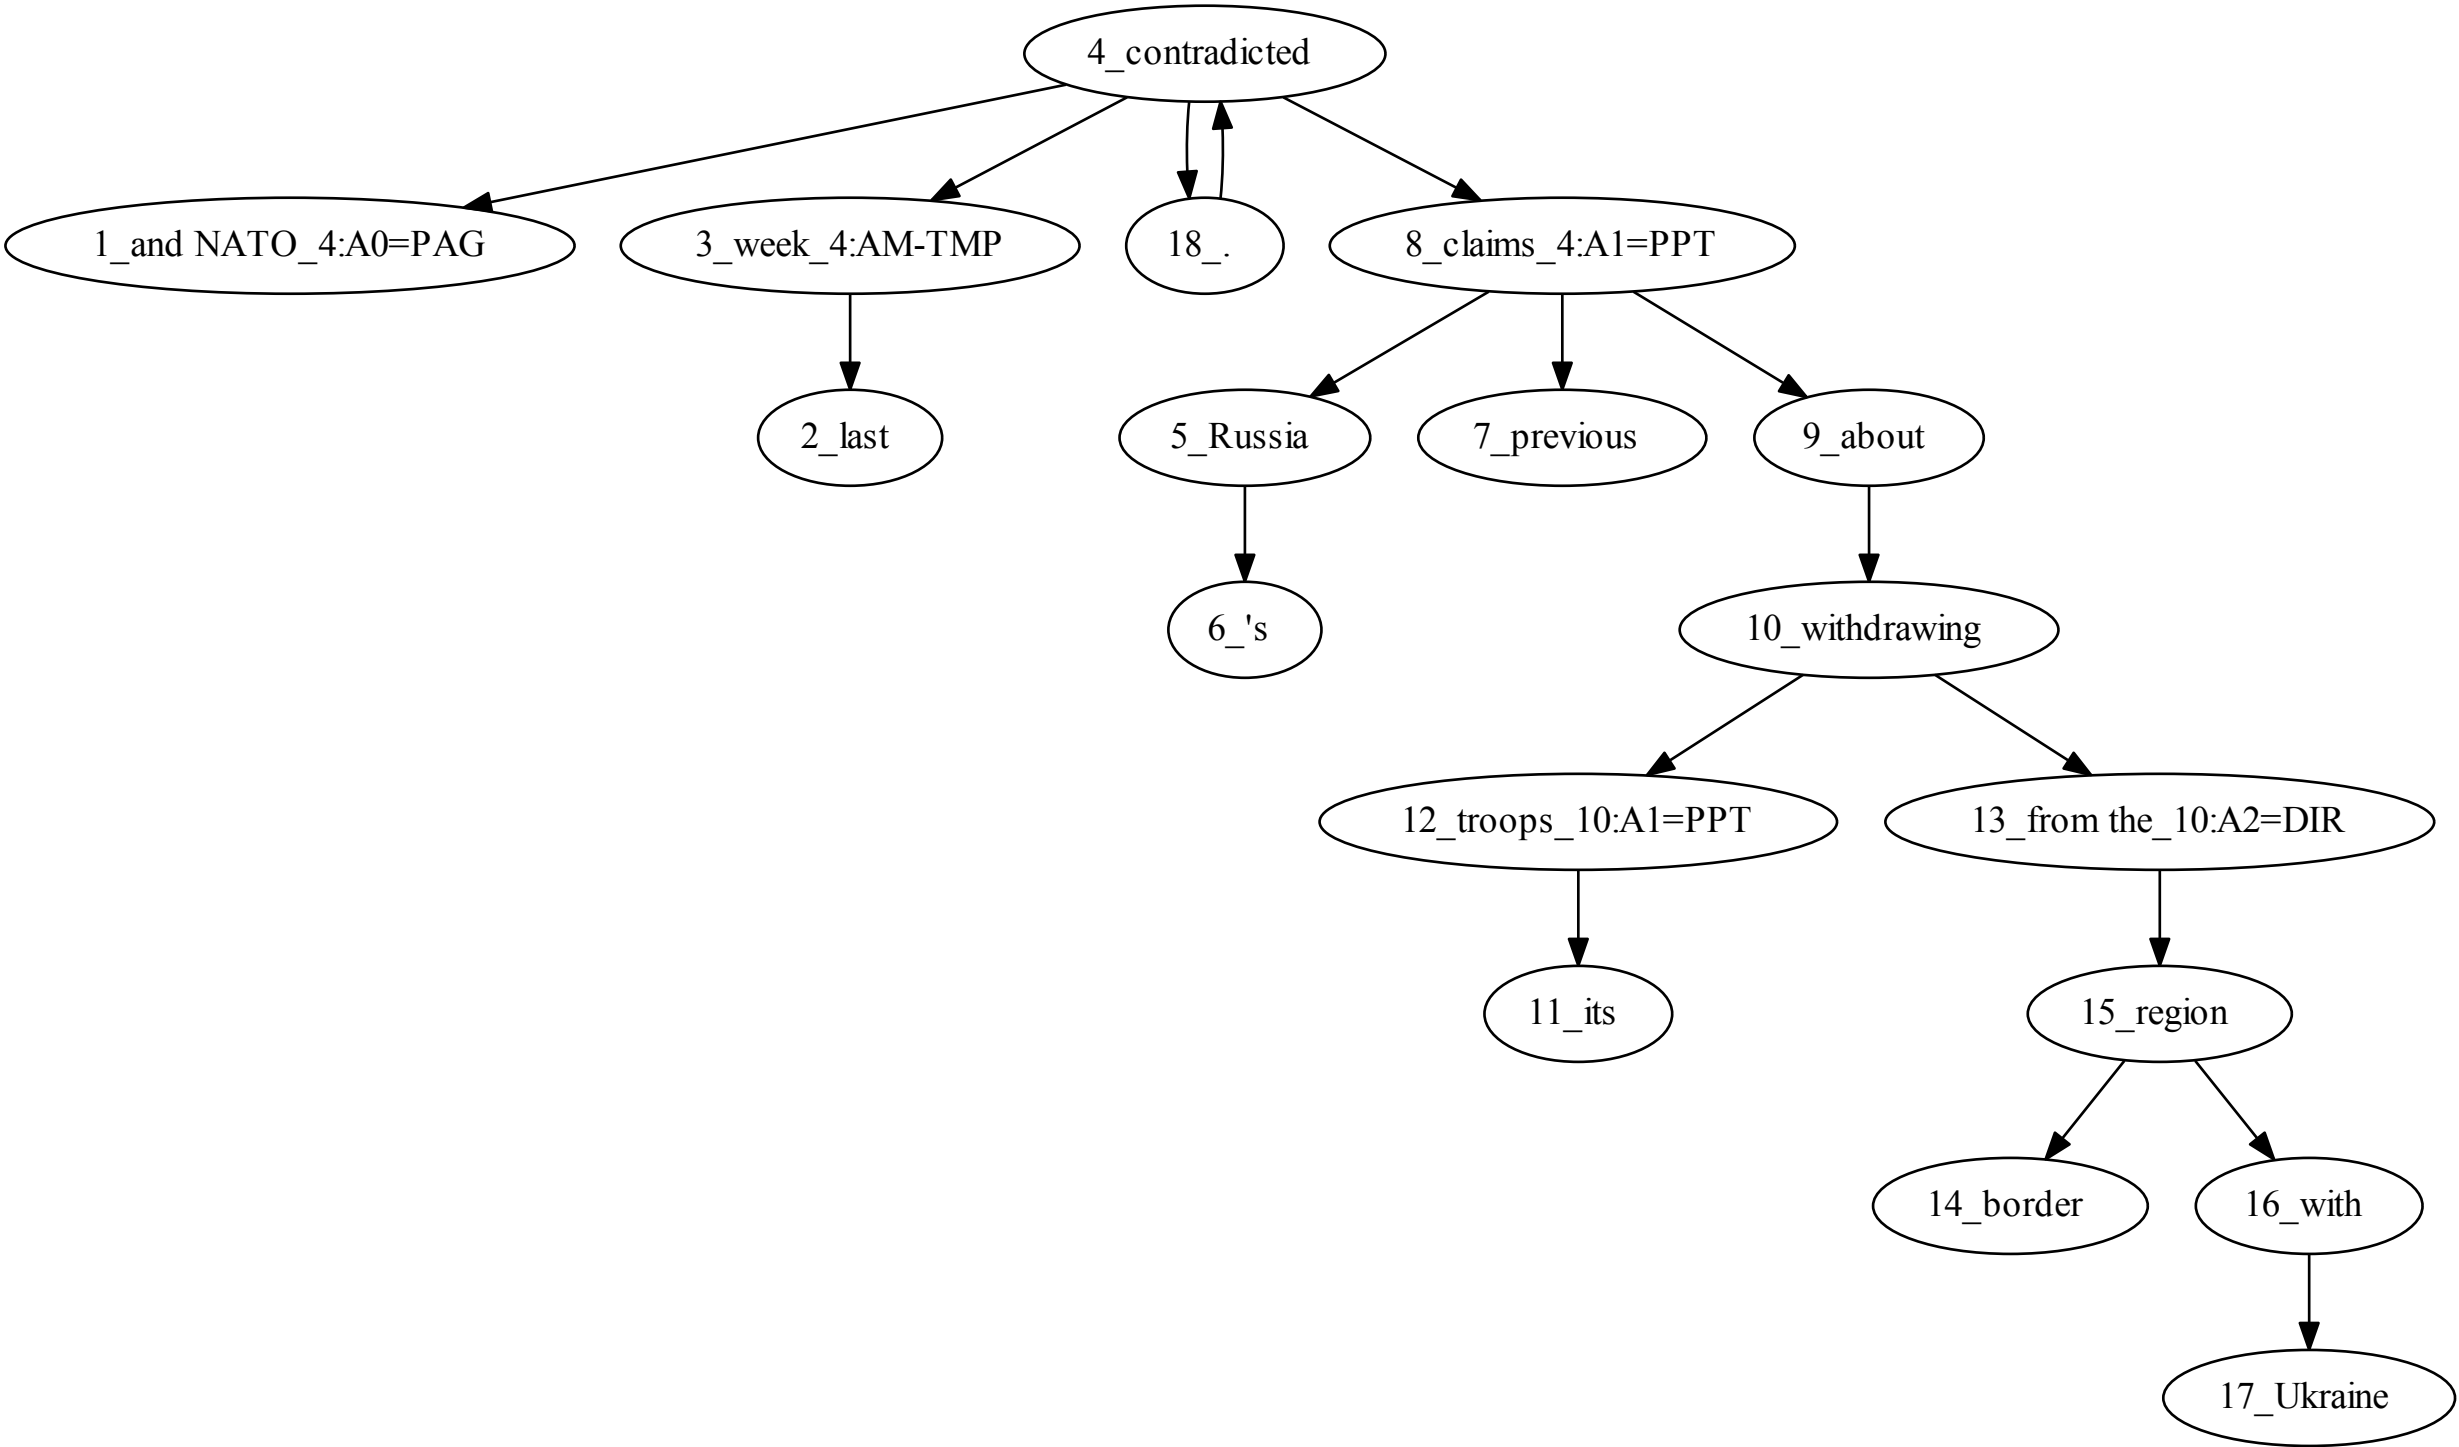

File202_Sent16claim.01_claim.01

In fact , it allows the Chinese to claim the U.S. is more aggressive in this arena .
